Parody on Moments To Remember

In "53" we sophmores came
To Everett High to gain our fame
We will have these moments to remember.

Our senior year we tried for tops,
The games, the prom and record hops
We will have these moments to remember

Though sophmores turned to juniors
And seniors we are yet
The memories of our high school fun
We shall not soon forget

When other years and future days
Will find us gone our separate ways
We will have these moments to remember.

The Halls of Ivy

Oh we love The Halls Of Ivy that surround us here today
And we will not forget tho' we be far far away. To the hallow'd Halls Of Ivy ev'ry voice will bid fare-well, and shimmer off in twi-light like the old ves-per bell. One day a hush will fall, The foot-steps of us all will ech-o down the hall and dis-ap pear, But as we sad-ly start our jour-neys far a-part,
A part of ev'ry heart will linger here in the sacred
Halls Of Ivy, where we've lived and learned to know,
That thro' the years we'll see you in the sweet af-ter-glow.

Foreword

A few short years of our lives, that dimming memories may be brightened, joyous experiences recounted, and loyal friendships recalled.

If, when a decade or more have passed, the happenings herein recorded will have gained a significance and meaning which our nearness to them now prevents us from seeing, we, your humble editors and staff, will feel that our efforts have not been in vain.

WILLIAM P. CANTY
Superintendent

My congratulations go to each member of the Class of 1956 of Everett High School upon your graduation. May the attainment of this goal be one of many which will be yours as you render service to your home, community, state, and nation.

Hold high the standards of good citizenship and nothing can stand in your way to success. As you look backward over the years, through the medium of this yearbook, may many pleasant memories be yours of the years spent in Everett High School.

Our thanks to

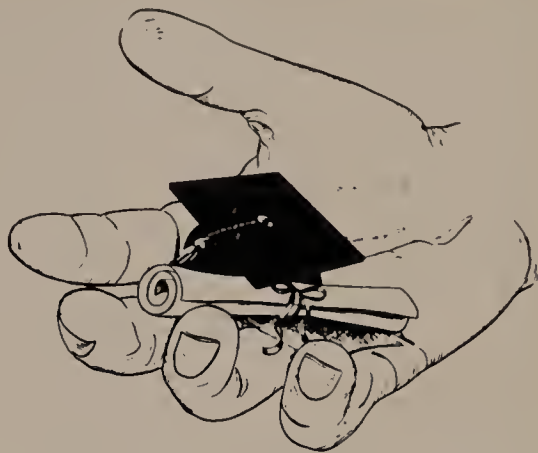

CHARLES E. BLEILER
Assistant Superintendent

For twelve years we have watched you grow into fine young ladies and gentlemen. You are bound together by a common bond of purpose. Let your aspirations always be to gain the highest pinnacle of success without any violation of the trust which God has given you. May all your memories be as fine as those contained in this book.

the Administration

MARTIN G. SANBORN
Principal

Your diploma is not merely a certificate which attests that you have completed a job. It is also a ticket of admission to further tasks. Your education has not ended; it has only begun.

May your further training, wherever you may get it, bring to you satisfaction, happiness, and the opportunity to serve others.

CHARLES W. COLLINS
Submaster

It is my sincere wish that your few years at Everett High School will be the beginning for you of many years of happiness and success.

Class History

The Class of 1956 does not presume to have set the world on fire by its accomplishments, but lest any feel that our progress was nil, let them but read this brief resume and draw their own conclusions.

As freshmen in the Parlin Junior High School we enjoyed the usual importance of all upper classmen in a junior high school. We chose as our leaders Joe Bosco as president, Angelo Borrelli as vice-president, Georgianna Colarusso as secretary, and Betty McLaughlin as treasurer.

School seemed to be different for some reason, gone were the days of individual interests but rather we started to mold ourselves into a working unit. The memories of sitting in the stadium those brisk Saturday mornings and cheering and yelling madly for our football team. Then came the basketball season and the feeling that this was truly our team. Later came that stirring production of the Dramatic Class "Wildcat Willie Carves the Turkey," and "The Ghost Wore White." Remember, too, the debating ability of Phil Vultaggio and how Joe Bosco walked off with the Prize Speaking Contest prize. Those afternoon socials, crowded lunchroom, the fearsome traffic squad, and the unforgettable recitation of "Character". Then came Parlin Day and our final assembly and the awarding of the treasured Parlin "P". What better choice for special outstanding citizenship awards than our Eleanor Vacca and Anthony Celata. These are memories, good memories for the most part, of happy days as kids.

September 1953 and the Everett Senior High School. How massive the structure and insignificant we felt. The usual hunt for the gym on the third floor and trying to find room 202 in the basement. We were typical awkward sophomores, no different from any other class. Then things started to fall into place. Elections of officers, and again it's Bosco, president; Evelyn Harrington, vice-president; Leona Spellman, secretary; Joanne Luongo, treasurer with Phil Vultaggio, Georgianna Colarusso, and Betty McLaughlin on the school council. The Sophomore Hop and how afraid the boys were to dance. The football games and the wild cheers for our heroes. The various clubs offered an opportunity to all to join in the activities. Fred Milton made the baseball team and George Catarius told the world he was a basketball player. Ken Gross and Ed Segel argued like madmen in the Boston College Debate. "Rudigore" by the Gilbert and Sullivan, Drama Night, and the Talent Show all aided in rounding out a busy year.

A new year and added dignity, Juniors! How wonderful was that name. How we poked fun at those little sophomores. Once again it's election time and again it's Bosco, president; Angie Borrelli, vice-president; Marie Rauseo, secretary; and Theresa Morley, treasurer. This year we are allowed four members of the school council and those elected are: Phil Vultaggio, Georgianna Colarusso, Richie Dell Isola, and Dom Guerrerio. Football and our boys have blossomed out. There we see Alex and Oscar DiNino, Dom Guerrerio, John Harrington, Paul Manganaro, and others of our class representing us. Junior year seemed to slide by before we knew it. Drama Night came and went and the basketball season rolled along. There we see Bob Sansone, George Catarius, and Sal Rauseo bringing added glory to our class. Debates, the Gilbert & Sullivan, and the Prize Speaking Contest with Adrienne Driben and Myrna Dersofi coming through with prizes.

The crowning event of the year was our Junior Prom. Our first real chance to show off in our formal wear. Do you remember how we danced and then came the crowning of Lucy Tannehill as the Queen and Dom Guerrerio as King. Oh yes, we didn't get home until rather late, Ma and Pa were peeved.

This is it! Our Senior Year. All memories are grand and these are the grandest. How high and mighty we felt as we looked down our noses at those poor lowly underclassmen. Our sophistication was unmatched. Again we retain Bosco as president and Borrelli as vice president. Marie Rauseo is elected secretary and Wilma Lantz is our treasurer. The school council is graced by Phil Vultaggio as vice chairman and Georgianna Colarusso as secretary-treasurer aided by those other sterling characters, Dom Guerrerio, Margot Fletcher, and "Fearless" Fred Milton.

Football time is here again and we just miss the Class A championship, but we are named the Greater Boston League Champs. Oh yeah, school was postponed for a week because of Polio. Outstanding on the football field were Co-Captains, Manganaro and "Solid" Oscar DiNino, ably assisted by Alex DiNino, "Smiling" John Harrington, "Spider" Sansone, "Two Ton" Guerrerio, "Shorty" McCauley, "Sneezy" Apruzzese, Chris Christo, Joe Yamello, Louis Lopilato, and Carmen DeCarlo. They ruined Chelsea.

Remember the two recess system--the first week, half the school thought they should have two recesses each. Drama Night and "Meet Corliss Archer". The cast was the best ever and each member of the cast was tops. How about the day school was dismissed until ten o'clock and half the kids couldn't tell time. Did your parents get a letter from Mr. Sanborn? And don't forget the bomb scare. That was not funny.

Then the rush for pictures and all the worry over the color of the yearbooks. We really had problems. Our biggest problem was in rooting our basketball team into being Co-Champs of the league and then into the Tech Tourney. The great play of Captain Sansone and his "Harmonious Hoopsters" sure kept us in a sweat during those cold winter nights. "Big George" Catarius, "Fearless Fred" Milton, "Sleepy Sal" Rauseo, and "Solid Oscar" DiNino sure put on a great show.

Memories and more memories of dances, the talent show, Gilbert and Sullivan, debates, public speaking, and poor work slips. All this was school and our Senior Year. Remember the long and short of it, McCauley and Sansone doing the high jump in track. How about Louis Lopilato dashing at the heels of Messina while Webber ran the half mile like a gazelle.

Later the one and only Senior Prom and we knew it was almost the end. What fun we had that night, and I mean all night. Mother and Dad didn't mind this too much, it's only once in a lifetime. Then came the fittings for caps and gowns, the distribution of yearbooks, and then Class Day. The distribution of gifts, the banquet, very little dancing, and away we went on our merry way. What a sad looking bunch the next day.

Graduation day and it's all over. The parting of the ways. The last time together as a class. Many of us will never see each other again in this life. Good Memories and Bad Memories, these we all have and the bad ones we will forget and the good ones we will retain.

This is our history, this is our story. Not great, but we are better for it all. Ours is a heritage to love, to guard, to preserve, and to pass on. We have no regrets except that we must part and live with our Memories.

Drama Night

The Dramatics Class, under the supervision of Mr. McLaughlin, is one of our most active organizations. In class, poise and self-confidence are developed through participation in skits and plays.

The Dramatics Class is composed of two main sections-- the Apprentice Group, which is composed of beginners, and the Advanced Group, made up of those entering their second or third year of the speech arts.

A third group, the Barnswallows, meets outside of school time. This group is composed of pupils who would like to explore further the field of dramatics. They receive special training in advanced techniques and procedures of the stage. Membership in this group is voluntary.

One of the most successful Drama Nights in the history of the Dramatics Class was presented on December 9 when "Meet Corliss Archer" was presented before an enthusiastic audience.

All of the parts were exceptionally well taken, while the off-stage "crew" did a magnificent job taking care of props, costumes, tickets, and other necessary details in the presentation of the play.

Seniors who performed in the play were Myrna Dersofi, John Brogna, Evelyn Harrington, Margot Fletcher, Louis Ponderoso, Linda Rutstein, Phyllis Schlosberg, Simmin Labell, Joseph Bosco, Paula Rosomofsky, Esta Greenberg, and Brenda Schwartz. Producer was Adrienne Driben.

Sally Levine, Lucy Ellen Tannehill, Ann Finnan, Laura Olsen, Evelyn Sak, and Marie Rauseo worked on properties; Evelyn Taylor had charge of costumes; Mary Ann Plati, Carol Russell, Ann Goldstein, Patricia Capen, and Marlene Gerokoulis handled the business end of the play.

Senior Gilbert And Sullivan

Under the able direction of Mr. Ottavio DeVivo the Gilbert & Sullivan Club enjoyed a banner year in material and in production. Seldom has any group been so fortunate to have so much fine talent in a group.

Their outstanding ability was shown at the various assemblies and particularly the Christmas assembly. Many times during the year they were in demand for outside school appearances at which they were received with great favor.

Each year, as is the custom, the club puts on one of the operettas and this year was no exception. On the night of March 23 "The Gondoleers," was presented in Rockwood Auditorium.

Spanish Club

The Spanish Club, under the direction of Miss Mary Dorn, had a very successful year.

The purpose of the Spanish Club is to promote better understanding of the language and customs of Spanish speaking countries.

During the year, the group has attended "La Barca Sin Pescador," a play presented at Emanuel College. The club has been fortunate in having such eminent speakers as Dr. Xavier Rostrepo from Columbia and Dr. Ernesto D'Agostino from Argentina.

Among the social events held were the Christmas Party on December 19 and the Valentine Party. On April 9, a Spanish assembly was presented honoring Pan American Day.

At the close of the school year a bronze medal is presented to the highest ranking senior in Spanish, from the club, under the auspices of the American Association of Teachers of Spanish.

Paula Rozomofsky	- - - - -	Vice-President
Lucy Ellen Tanneyhill	- - - - -	Secretary
Barbara Janes	- - - - -	Treasurer

Italian Club

The Everett High School Italian Club was formed under the direction of Mr. Victor E. DeRubeis in 1938.

The purposes of this club are many in nature: to compliment the use of the language studied in the classroom, to improve the co-operation between the pupil and parent where needed, to aid the group in a social way so that it does not become burdensome, and lastly to aid in the study of the language and give a greater view of true Italian culture.

The following objectives were attained this year. During December a "Parents' Night" was held. An hour long class was held in Italian and both parents and pupils actively participated. Refreshments were served after the class.

Later a Christmas party was held and this was a great success and was enjoyed by all.

The hi-light of the year was the presentation of two plays on May 11, "Le Tre Grazie" and "Il Digiuno E La Vita," and each proved to be a tremendous success.

Officers for the year were:

Mr. Victor DeRubeis	- - - - -	Faculty Advisor

The Library Staff

The Library Staff was organized in 1935 by Miss Helen E. Gindele. Its purpose is to acquaint members with the various procedures of a library, such as charging, shelving, and mending books. It also develops an interest in books and teaches the girls how to get the maximum enjoyment from them.

The members of the Library Staff also enjoy a social life. They have made a trip to Haydn Memorial, and have visited both the Boston Public Library and the library at Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

The annual Christmas party took place at Miss Curtin's home. The refreshments and entertainment provided were enjoyed by all the girls.

The Exhibit and Bulletin Board Committee, the Book Reviewing Committee, The Refreshment Committee, and the Entertainment Committee are the factors which help make the Library Staff the educational and social organization it is.

Officers of the Library Staff are:

Lucy Ellen Tanneyhill	- - - - -	President
Sylvia Levine	- - - - -	Vice-President
Paula Rozomofsky	- - - - -	Secretary
Harriet Gamrin	- - - - -	Treasurer

The Lyceum

The Lyceum, the oldest organized group in the school, began its program in mid October under the guidance of Mr. Mahan, as faculty advisor.

Early meetings of the club were devoted to methods and procedures in public speaking and debating. Later came forums, discussions, panel and round table discussions, and intra-club debates.

The material success of the club as a whole was due to the ardent interest among the members of the Lyceum.

The national topic: "Resolved that the Government subsidies should be granted, according to need, to high school graduates who qualify for additional training," was one of the liveliest topics the Lyceum had debated for many a year.

As "A Year To Remember" went to press all the members of the Lyceum had great hopes for the future debates they were to have, and also for the annual B. C. debate.

Officers of the Lyceum were:

Phillip Vultaggio	- - - - -	First President
Edward Segel	- - - - -	Second President
George Clay	- - - - -	Vice-President
Esta Greenberg	- - - - -	Secretary
Joseph Bosco	- - - - -	Program Chairman

French Club

Under the able direction of Miss Carmella Forgione, Faculty Advisor, a French Club was formed in the High School in 1955.

It was felt that a club of this type would do a great deal toward making the study of French more interesting.

The purposes and aims of the club are many, and foremost are the educational and social aspects of such a group.

During the year many meetings were held at which time discussions were held on the language, French culture, and current events in France.

From the social angle, it helped do away with the classroom formality. Several parties were held during Thanksgiving and Christmas. Refreshments were served and songs of France and Carols were sung in French.

The officers were:

Miss Carmella Forgione	- - -	Faculty Advisor
Mr. Thomas Schatz	- - - -	Associate Advisor
Domenic Guerriero	- - - - -	President
Fred Milton	- - - - -	Vice-President
Andrea Boyadgis	- - - - -	Secretary

FOOTBALL

Under our new football coach, Mr. Amerino J. "Moody" Sarno, great things were expected and we were not to be disappointed.

Besides a top flight schedule, we had to overcome many obstacles in order to complete the season. First of all, practice was halted because of the Polio epidemic which also caused the cancellation of our opening game with Quincy.

Finally, after two weeks of practice, we ran into a strong Somerville team under the lights before a big opening crowd. We held our own and more than came up to expectations. Our rugged line did a very good job and managed to stay on even terms for the first half at 6-6. The second half we completely dominated the play and even though the score only showed we were six points better, nevertheless, our potential strength was there. "Bucky" Pasquariello, Johnny Iozza, and Alex and Oscar Di Nino showed that they were in for a good year. De Carlo and co-captain Mangano were towers of strength.

Next in line was Weymouth and also the rains. Rain, Rain, and more Rain. Well it took the tail end of a hurricane to stop us and that it did. Game postponed!

A mediocre Malden Catholic eleven was next in line. We ran all over the field and could only come up with one touchdown to win. M.C. made exactly three yards in the first half. La Rosa and Guerriero were standouts. In the backfield Sansone had a good night. The touchdown came by way of a pass, Iozza to Sorrento.

The Medford Mustang was next in line. This club has been double trouble to Everett for the past few years and came near acting in the same capacity again. With the sharp kicking of Co-captain Oscar Di Nino, we managed to keep them back in their own back yard almost all day; but at the same time we were going nowhere fast. Finally by virtue of an automatic safety we came out on top of the pile by the lowly score of 2-0. Never mind, they wished they had the 2.

Lynn English and rain. Yes, rain! Not just a shower or a sprinkle, this was real rain by the buckets. Again a cancellation. What a season!

The Golden Tornado of Malden, our ancient rival was next. Malden was "loaded for bear". But what is this! Coach Sarno has come up with a completely changed back field of new faces and new positions. Is this what was needed for the last few weeks? You said it, Buster! Bam, bang---smash and it's all over - Everett 33, Malden 0. Again it was the rugged line men who ripped holes in the Malden frontier to allow our backs to roll along. Standouts were Iozza, Pasquariello, Silverio, and LaBella in the revamped back field. DeCarlo, McCauley, Apruzzese, Manganaro, and Jannino did yeoman work up front.

In a blinding snowstorm on the following week the postponed game with Weymouth was played. We were not supposed to worry too much about them, but the usual happens when this condition exists. They rose to great heights and belted us to the tune of 6-0. Self-confidence is good, but over-confidence can ruin you, as we found out.

The payoff game was Thanksgiving. The largest crowd ever assembled in the stadium was on hand to see the powerhouse undefeated Chelsea Red Devils come into Everett for a taste of turkey. This was the pay off day for them as it meant the Class A championship for the first time in the history of the school, the Greater Boston Championship, a trip to Florida, and various other rewards.

Chelsea was loaded. They started off slowly and moved even more slowly. Somehow we hadn't believed their publicity. Right off the bat we held them for downs, took the ball and started to roll. It took time, but it was very obvious that it was just a question of time. Finally after a 65 yard march, LaBella plunged over for the first score and we led 7-0 at the half.

It was easy to see that Chelsea was dismayed by this turn of events and never was able to put on a concerted offensive drive or defensive stand. The third period was a stalemate, but the fourth was when the fireworks let go. First it was Silverio for yardage, then Pasquariello, then DiNino and Iozza would step into the picture. LaBella ran the team with the ability of a master. His choice of running plays, intermixed with bulls eye passes, was unbeatable. All this was too much. Poor Chelsea gave up two more touchdowns and it was all over 21-0. The forward wall of Harrington, DiNino, Manganaro, Prodonis and all the others was terrific. To single out an individual star would be impossible. The entire team, substitutes included, played the best game seen in the history of this long rivalry.

This game gave us the Greater Boston Championship as well as the record of being the number-one defensive team in Class A.

Best wishes to all our seniors. We hope that life will hold an abundance of victories for you and that your losses on the grid-iron will better serve to teach you the value of hard work and the desire to correct your short-comings.

Track

The outlook for the 1956 track season is better than usual. Inasmuch as the season does not start until the first of May, we can only predict that the future looks rosy.

Outstanding among our returning lettermen are Frank Messina who was undefeated in the sprints last year and who copped the State Championship. Ken Webber is an old hand at running the distances while Sansone and McCauley will high jump for many a point. Weight men DiCarlo, DiNino and La Rosa should be good for a clean sweep in the weight events. In the sprints and middle distance Louis Lopilato, Richie Del Isola and John Iozza should look like "Swiftly".

This year the team meets Malden, Revere, Chelsea, and Somerville in dual meets and will participate in the State Relays at Belmont, the Metropolitan Meet in Cambridge, and the State Meet at White Memorial Stadium in Boston.

The 1955-1956 basketball team, according to Coach Len Putnam, was the best all-round group of boys he has ever had the pleasure to coach. The over-all picture showed fourteen wins and three losses, two of these to Somerville by two points in each instance. The team played each club in the league twice and wound up the season in a tie for first place with Somerville. By their efforts they were invited to participate in the Tech Tourney after the regular season.

Everett opened the season with Waltham and showed superior form as the 62-41 score showed. Rauseo and Sansone with eighteen and thirteen points each led the attack for Everett. Following this a reversal came at the hands of Watertown to the tune of 59-54. Everett seemed to be way off their stride for this one even though Rauseo again hit for 23 while Catarius scored 12. The second victim of the Everett machine was North Quincy who bowed to the score of 63-57. Once again it was Rauseo with 20 points, Sansone with 15, and Catarius and Milton with 10 each. Following this game, and the last before the league season, was Newton who fell before the sharp-shooters by the score of 66-56. Sansone scored 20, Catarius 15, and the little bundle of energy, Murray, scored 12.

During the league season Quincy fell victim in the first game by the score of 66-44. Milton and Murray with 16 points, and Rauseo with 13 points, were the standouts for Everett. In the second Quincy game again it was Everett by a closer margin 61-54. Sansone and Murray with 19 points each and Catarius with 17 points really carried the load all the way.

Somerville, the Everett Jinx team, was next in line and even the continued efforts of Murray with 19 points and Sansone and Rauseo with 18 and 17 respectively could not overcome the big Somerville team and we were nosed out by the score of 65-63.

In a very hotly contested and disputed second game, Somerville again came out on top by two points, this time 57-55. The defensive play of Messina was outstanding while old faithful Murray and Sansone garnered 13 points each and Rauseo 12.

Medford, the team that had beaten Somerville, came next and they didn't prove to be too much trouble in the first game as the boys swarmed all over them to the tune of 54-46. Once again it was Murray with 19 and Catarius and Milton with 10 each. In the return match, after Medford had again whipped Somerville, we even had less trouble than before as we ran up 67 to their 55. Murray truly had a night with 24 points. Rauseo was next with 16 and Sansone followed with 12.

Lowell has been the door mat in the league for some reason and this year was no exception. The entire squad played and every player hit the strings. Everett 71-50. In the return match it was almost the same story as the first game 79-57. Rauseo scored 26 in the first game and 19 in the second, while Catarius and Milton managed to hit for 17 and 15 respectively.

Against a poor Chelsea team, the "Crimson Horde" poured it on in the first game to the tune of 68-44 with the whole squad again in the scoring column. Sansone and Catarius notched for 17 each. The second game was much closer and Everett managed to win by only 13 points 55-42. Catarius and Rauseo were again the leaders in the scoring.

Against Revere, Rauseo dropped in 17 points as the boys drove on toward the championship. The final of the first game was 74-43. Again Sansone, Milton, and Catarius were right behind in the scoring. In the second encounter Revere played a much better defensive game and managed to hold us to a 59-40 score. Rauseo dropped in 22 points.

Malden was supposed to be a question mark team in the league, but not to us. In the primary game we belted them by the score of 54-36. Milton led the scoring with 16 points and Sansone and Murray followed with 13 points each. In the final game of the season, and the championship still in doubt, we made it certain by downing the Golden Tornado by the score of 65-52. Sansone finished off in grand style with 22 points and Murray with 13 and Rauseo and Milton with 11 each tied the knot on the bag!

At the conclusion of the regular season, Everett was picked to participate in the Eastern Massachusetts Tourney to determine a champion for Class A.

On March 2, we met New Bedford High School at Brandeis University and promptly dumped them in the qualifying round by the score of 52-46. Murray was superb as he carried the burden for the Crimson and Blue and dunked the ball for twenty points. By virtue of this win we moved into the Boston Gardens for the quarter finals against a strong Lawrence Central Team. This time it was Catarius with twenty-one points and Murray with nineteen points who kept the Everett fans yelling and cheering and brought us one step nearer our goal. The final was Everett 69-62.

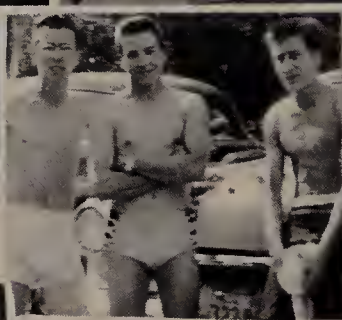

On the night of March 9, we met our downfall. Durfee High, who later won the championship, beat us 54-52 in the semi-final round. Our coach, managers, and team were just as great in defeat as in victory. Each team member played his heart out, but it just wasn't to be our night.

To the entire team, congratulations for a job well done and for the truly exemplary and sportsmanship manner in which you conducted yourselves at all times. Lest we forget the untiring efforts of a manager, nice going Angelo Borrelli.
